PRESS RELEASE

AerCap Holdings N.V. Announces Leadership Succession Plan

Aengus Kelly to Succeed Klaus Heinemann as CEO Effective From AerCap's AGM in May 2011

Wouter (Erwin) den Dikken Appointed Chief Operating Officer

Amsterdam, The Netherlands; October 4, 2010 — AerCap Holdings N.V. ("AerCap", NYSE: AER) today announced that the Board of Directors has accepted that Klaus Heinemann, at reaching his retirement age of 60 in 2011, has chosen not to renew his contract and will retire as the Company's CEO and a Member of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will propose at the Company's 2011 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders ("AGM") that Aengus Kelly, currently CEO of AerCap Inc. and responsible for AerCap's operations in the Americas, be appointed as member of the Board of Directors. Following the appointment as Director by the AGM, the Board of Directors will appoint Aengus Kelly as the Company's CEO. All changes are expected to be effective as per the date of the Company's 2011 AGM scheduled to take place in May 2011.

Erwin den Dikken, previously CEO of AerCap Ireland Limited and Chief Legal Officer of AerCap Holdings N.V., has been promoted to Chief Operating Officer of AerCap Holdings N.V. with effect from October 1, 2010. Mr. den Dikken will remain Chief Legal Officer.

Mr. Heinemann said, "I have served AerCap since 2002 and will be leaving it in a strong financial and competitive position. Now is the appropriate time to put the next generation of leadership in place. Aengus Kelly is a natural choice for the CEO position at AerCap. He has demonstrated outstanding leadership and management capability in each position in which he has served during his twelve year tenure with AerCap and its predecessor companies. I will work closely with Aengus over the coming months to ensure a smooth transition."

Pieter Korteweg, Chairman of AerCap Holdings N.V.'s Board of Directors, said: "Under Klaus Heinemann's strong leadership, the Company has grown from a relatively small organization to the leading independent aircraft lessor in the world. AerCap is now a publicly listed company with a strong operational and financial position, which is committed to delivering successful results and continued growth. During Klaus Heinemann's tenure as CEO, AerCap's asset base has grown from $4 billion to $9 billion, its revenues have increased from $0.5 billion to well over $1 billion and its earnings from a loss in 2002 to an annual profit of approximately $200 million.

The Board has been actively involved in the succession planning for the Company and has worked and will continue to work closely with Klaus Heinemann to ensure a seamless leadership transition. During the last few years, AerCap has built a strong leadership team which enabled the Board to make its succession selection from internal sources. Both Aengus Kelly and Erwin den Dikken are highly experienced aircraft leasing professionals with demonstrated skills to lead the future development of the Company together with CFO Keith Helming, the Board and the entire AerCap management team and the employees."
